

You Haven't Truly LIVED

Until You Have LOVED A Senior Pet.

Ask anyone who has ever opened their heart and home to a senior pet. You couldn't ask for a better, more devoted companion to share your life with. Seniors have been around the block a time or two. They have learned how to acclimate to a new home and co-exist peacefully with other animals in the family. Contrary to popular belief, you most definitely CAN teach an old dog new tricks. Seniors are every bit as trainable (if not more so) than their junior counterparts. With a senior pet, what you see is what you get. Much of the guesswork associated with adopting a puppy or kitten ("How big will he get?"; "What will her temperament be like?") is a non-issue when adopting a senior animal.

November is "ADOPT A SENIOR PET" Month.

What better time than now to give a loving home to a deserving senior pet? Shown below are just a few of the wonderful seniors waiting to be adopted:
